

Voices of Iraqi Workers

2007

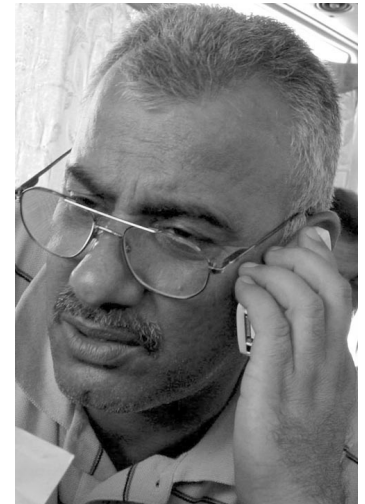

SOLIDARITY

TOUR

coming to San Jose

David Bacon

David Bacon

Sunday, June 10th 2-4 p.m.
Laborers Hall

509 Emory St. at Coleman (south of Hedding)

Featured speakers

Hashmeya Muhsin Hussein, president,
Iraqi Electrical Utility Workers Union
(first woman to lead a national union in Iraq)

Faleh Aboud Umara, general secretary,
Iraqi Federation of Oil Unions

Find out...

- What are conditions for working people in Iraq
- How the occupation has affected families and children
- Why unions oppose the proposed oil investment law
- What will happen if the occupation continues
- What will happen if it ends rapidly
- What Iraqi working people want to happen
- Whether a peaceful, stable, non-sectarian Iraq is possible

Admission: $5-15 sliding scale (no one turned away for lack of funds)

Local information: joan@wilpfsanjose.org or 408-243-4359

Sponsors: South Bay AFL-CIO Labor Council, Building & Construction Trades Council, Communications Workers of America Local 9423, Plumbers & Fitters Local 393, Laborers Local 270, California Nurses Association, United Food & Commercial Workers Local 5, SEIU Healthcare Workers West, South Bay Mobilization, San Jose Peace Center, Women's International League for Peace and Freedom-San Jose Branch, Friends of South Asia, Veterans for Peace-Chapter 101, Labor Party, Green Party of Santa Clara County, Arab-American Cultural Center of Silicon Valley, our developing world, Students for Justice-SJSU, Federation of Retired Union Members (FORUM)
See www.southbaymobilization.org

National sponsors: U.S. Labor Against the War, American Friends Service Committee, United for Peace and Justice. Regional: KPFA

For Bay Area schedule and oil law information visit www.uslaboragainstwar.org